- Committee Reports:
 - Fall Family Fun Fair - Event Recap (Amy Woods, Lauren Pearson, Jaime Gaggini)
 - Lots of kids attended.
 - The event could not have happened without the IMSA volunteers.
 - The committee is considering not holding the event next year, because finding volunteers has been difficult
 - Possibly have less volunteers at each station in order to have enough people to go around?
 - Could we get 5th graders involved in volunteering for the event?
 - Open it up to middle school volunteers as well.
 - Yearbook - (Kim Miklavcich, Kim Illingsworth)
 - Superhero theme
 - Art project assignment to draw yourself as a superhero. A sheet with directions goes home, and then students complete the art assignment, and return it to their teacher. Drawings are then incorporated into the design of the yearbook.
 - Family Knights Out – new event added 12/6 at Portillo's! (Ashley Pederson)
 - Is it the Batavia location? We believe that it was last year.
 - Mother/Son BINGO – Planning meeting held 11/7 (Lisa Weberski)

- One volunteer came to the planning event. Lisa and the one volunteer planned the event together.
 - Looking for ways to find more people to volunteer. (8-10 people).
 - Going to ask Mr. Wentz to be the Bingo caller.
 - Can we involve 5th graders and middle schoolers?
 - School Beautification
 - No one came to help, but the leaves from the front yard were removed.
